He was on his way with the children to Millville, Cache county, where he expects to place the little ones in the care of Mrs. Elizabeth D. Olsen, a sister of his wife. He states that if Mrs. Olsen will not accept them he will take them back to Rock Springs with him. When seen, Deforrest was engaged in buying clothing for the children, and he fitted them out in good shape before leaving for the north at 1:25. He reported the matter to Policeman Cooney with a view of intercepting the wife. He desires only that she surrender the boy and the children's clothing. DeForrest believes that his wife is in Salt Lake, as she purchased a ticket from Rock Springs to that city.
